FIRE DESTROYS FAMOUS CHURCH IN COPENHAGEN

Institution Widely Known for Its Splendid Settlement Work in Denmark—Industrial Training for Chinese Girls—Y. M. C. A. Work in Turkey—New Methodist College in Rome—African Boys Thirst for Knowledge

BY SOUTHERN MISSIONARY NEWS BUREAU

Ida Clyde Clarke—Editor

A cable dispatch from Copenhagen executive officer. Mr. Davis was sent out to Constantinople by the International Young Men's Christian Association some two or three years ago. He has learned the Turkish language, and it is due to his energetic initiative that the new organization begins its work, with the sympathy and co-operation of many denominations. Even some Mohammedans, attracted to Mr. Davis by his truly heroic work in behalf of the Turkish wounded, remarked, "If all Christians were such men, all Mohammedans would wish to become Christians."

1st latest report indicated that during the past year a total of over 400,000 days of employment was found for out-of-works." Permanent employment was found for 257 men and 150 women. About 1,620 days were spent by the volunteer workers of the settlement in nursing sick and aged people, while in the creche a shelter was given to small children of many mothers who have to work out during the day.

The parsonage attached to the church has been used as a home for stranded men and during the past year night shelter was given to 9,787 persons. Often on cold nights homeless men would be permitted to occupy pews of the church as beds, the auditorium being especially warmed for that purpose. The mission has maintained a cheap restaurant, where for a comparatively small sum good meal of wholesome food can be secured. At this church restaurant 8,842 meals were served last year.

The mission has a very interesting and effective work among the children of the very poor people in the neighborhood, including a babies' home for the little children of sick mothers, a kindergarten, two homes for orphans and a holiday colony for boys and girls from the slum sections of Copenhagen.

Under the leadership of Rev. Anton Bast, the superintendent of the church, the work has highly commended itself to the general public. The expense of this social service enterprise at the Jerusalem church, amounting to about $20,000 a year, has been carried largely by the people of Copenhagen, the grant-in-aid from the board of foreign missions at New York being merely nominal.

Chinese Industrial Training

The Y. W. C. A. girls of Davidson Memorial, in Soochow, attended a conference in Shanghai, which was a wonderful revelation to them and helped them to forget self and live with a higher, nobler purpose. When the call came to this school last spring for volunteers for evangelistic work, almost the entire faculty of Chinese teachers volunteered, together with the matrons or the Kindergarten Training School and the Chinese secretary of the Industrial school. The sales of the Industrial school for 1913 amounted to $7,966.75.

Y. M. C. A. in Turkey

A Young Men's Christian Association for Turkey has been organized in Constantinople. The Rev. Marcus Bowen, D. D., agent of the American Bible Society, is president of the managing board. It is interesting to see the cosmopolitan character of the new organization. The gentlemen who met together to discuss the organization and to prepare its constitution were found to represent the following religious denomination: three Presbyterians, two Congregationalists, two members of the United Free Church of Scotland, one of the church of England, one Roman Catholic, one Protestant Armenian, four Gregorian Armenians, one Protestant Greek, and four "Orthodox" Greeks.

Since the association will admit to membership any young man willing to aspire to a better life, it will not be a self-governing body. The whole of the interests of the association will be in the hands of a board of thirty-seven directors, with Mr. A. Davis, a trained secretary, as

FRANK D. RASH ATTENDS CLASS REUNION

Alumni Meeting of Massachusetts School of Technology at Chicago

Frank D. Rash spent Friday and Saturday at Chicago and Gary, Ind., attending a class reunion and meeting of alumni of the Massachusetts School of Technology. Some two hundred and more attended the reunion and men of more than national fame in the scientific world were on the program. A trip to Gary to visit the great plant of the United States Steel Corporation, as guests of that concern, was one of the features of the occasion, the trip being made on a special train. The steel plant with its wonderful machinery and modern processes, all on the most gigantic scale, was inspected by the men of science with interest.

Birthday Party at Home of Little Lady Much Enjoyed

Little Miss Lora Belle Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Martin, entertained a number of her friends at her home on Moss Avenue Monday afternoon in honor of her sixth birthday. About a dozen of her little friends were present and numerous games were played and other amusements were enjoyed for sometime, after which refreshments were served by the hostess' mother. Beautiful decorations were much in evidence and the Birthday cake and candles was a feature worth much note. The young lady was well remembered by her friends with many beautiful and useful gifts, which proved her popularity and were marks of best wishes for many, many happy returns of this most enjoyable day.

Hart-Martin

Miss Cora Lee Hart and Mr. Robert Martin were married at the residence of his Uncle, Bell Isor, Hobart, Okla., on Feb. 14. Miss Hart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hart, of Elizabethtown, Ky., and a popular young lady. Mr. Martin is an old Earlington boy and has a number of friends here who will be glad to hear of his good luck.

BLOODHOUNDS USED TRAILING ROBBERS

Kington Coal Co. Store at Mortons Gap Touched for Numerous Things Last Week

Mortons Gap, Feb. 23.—Jack, Tom and Jesse Roberts, Budie Gariu and Ben Long were arrested here today on suspicion of having entered the store of the Kington Coal Co. last Thursday night late, when several suits of clothes, shoes and other articles were stolen. Blood-hounds were used in trailing the men. The examining trial was to be held this afternoon, but owing to the fact that the commonwealth was not ready, the trial was continued until next Monday.

This is the second time the Kington's ore has been robbed during the past three months.

BENTON TRIED TO KILL VILLA

Is The Story Told by Rebel Leaders at Juarez

WAS COURT MARTIALED

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 21.—The official constitutional version of the death of William S. Benton, in Juarez, was made public today, and asserts that Benton tried to shoot Villa, who was present at the court martial, was represented by council in the person of a rebel officer, and that the proceedings were public. The court marshal also sets forth that Benton was convicted of aiding the enemy.

Friends here declare that Scotsman never went armed, because of his violent temper, and that he was deliberately murdered. Benton's testimony, given indirectly, was that he refused to stay away from the Mexican ranch at Villa's orders, didn't try to harm Villa and didn't aid the enemy.

Bryan has Ordered Investigation of Death

Washington, Feb. 21.—Secretary Bryan has ordered a far-reaching investigation into the killing of William S. Benton, the British Subject at Juarez, Mexico. He announced today that until all the facts are gathered from all sources and transmitted to Great Britain and state department that he wouldn't express an opinion.

Explanations by Gen. Villa to Thos. D. Edwards and George C. Carothers, American consular representatives at Juarez, together with the court martial records, will be supplemented by further information.

The state department's advices late today giving Villa's version were that Benton was armed and personally quarreled with Villa, and that he was disarmed, tried by a court martial and executed for attempting Villa's life.

LARGE CLASS FOR INITIATION

Rizpah Will Hold Ceremonial in Madisonville Monday Afternoon in Masonic Temple

NICE PROGRAM GOTTEN OUT

Flashy programs in brilliant red announcing a ceremonial for Rizpah Temple, A.A.O.N., Mystic Shrine for Monday, March 2nd, have just been mailed to some 600 Nobles and 'big doings' are anticipated by Madisonville Shriners on this date.

After having the date changed twice during the past three months for various reasons, everything is now in readiness for the ceremonial, and the indications are that the largest number of candidates since the Shrine has been in Madisonville will be initiated on that date.

There are at least 200 petitions now in, and while it is not likely that this number will receive this degree, still the class will be about the largest ever. There are many Madisonville Masons who will have this degree conferred at this meeting, as well from many other towns in Western Kentucky, several coming from Henderson, Owensboro and Providence.

Following the work at the temple, a Buffet Luncheon will be served at 6 o'clock and "A Modern Eve," a high-class musical comedy, with a cast of 35 people, will entertain the Nobles at the Garrick Theatre later.

The program, prepared by Frank Rash, of this city, is very nifty, consisting of four pages well gotten up and tastily arranged.

EARLINGTON WELL REPRESENTED AT HENDERSON

Golden Jubilee Celebration of the Knights of Pythias Held Sunday

Messrs. Ernest Newton, Marion Sisk, Clarence Higgins and Otley Vanoy attended the Golden Jubilee celebration of the Knights of Pythias, held at Henderson Sunday. It was in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order by Justice Henry Rathbone in the City of Washington, D. C. in 1864. The program was a strong one, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon in Park Theater. Splendid musical numbers were rendered and several strong addresses were made.

Among the notable speakers of the occasion was Prof. McHenry Rhoads, supervisor of high schools for the State of Kentucky. Villa and his revolutionary bands had no status as belligerents which entitled them to try the subject of other Powers by court-martial. If this pretense at a court-martial should be the only result of the inquiry being made by the United States Government, the obligation of the United States to act as the mandatory of civilization will remain.

ENGLAND WILL NOT INTERVENE

London Papers Call Killing of Benton Foul Play

OUT OF HUMOR WITH ACTIONS OF AMERICAN ADMINISTRATION

London, Feb. 23.—"The pacification of Mexico is an object we honestly desire to see accomplished, but it is impossible to effect it by British intervention. We do not intend to make any attempt of that character, which would be both futile and impolitic."

This is the attitude of the British foreign office as outlined today in the house of commons by Francis Dyke-Acland, parliamentary undersecretary for foreign affairs, "after full consideration of the series of victimizations of British subjects in Mexico, culminating in the removal of William S. Benton by Villa at Juarez."

Press Comment

The newspapers, while awaiting the result of the inquiry instituted by the United States Government, are practically united in condemning the actions of Villa, which some of them regard as nothing less than murder.

The Standard editorially expresses discontent at what it considers the British Foreign Secretary's mild attitude toward the United States, and says:

"Sir Edward Grey seems inclined to treat the murder of Benton with cool philosophy, altogether out of harmony with the feelings of the nation. We desire to remain on the friendliest terms with the United States, but cannot waive the duty of protecting our nationals abroad or we shall cease to be a great power. And we cannot permit the crime to go unpunished merely because President Wilson and Secretary Bryan may inconceivably adopt Villa's defense of the murder as a justifiable exaction."

Called Murder

The Pall Mall Gazette, an opposition organ, under the heading, "It's Murder Most Foul," says the slaying of Benton is an event which touches the honor of the British name to the quick. The newspaper says:

"Even if the body which was styled a court-martial really assembled, and even if its sentence was based on true evidence and fair consideration thereof, Villa and his revolutionary bands had no status as belligerents which entitled them to try the subject of other Powers by court-martial. If this pretense at a court-martial should be the only result of the inquiry being made by the United States Government, the obligation of the United States to act as the mandatory of civilization will remain."

CHILDREN HATE OIL, CALOMEL AND PILLS

"California Syrup of Figs" Best For Tender Stomach, Liver, Bowels
—Tastes Delicious

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded.
Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

In Memoriam

The grim messenger of death has invaded our home again and taken from us our dear sister, Mrs. Anna Hays, age 37 years on Feb. 15th at 8:45 a.m. at her home in Mortons Gap, Ky. after a long illness of tuberculosis.
Anna had been a consistent member of the General Baptist church from early childhood and bore with Christian fortitude her long and fatal illness. She was a devoted wife, a kind and loving mother and leaves to mourn her loss a devoted husband, six dear children, 2 sisters a brother and a host of friends who so tenderly administered to her every need during her lingering illness. Kind and loving hands laid her mortal remains to rest in Old Salem burying ground near Mortons Gap after services at the church by the pastor, Rev.
Sisk.

Sleep on, dear sister until the Resurrection Morn. Then, as the trumpet is calling the righteous to come forth, we will meet you again where there is no more sorrow, no more parting but all is love, peace and joy. May the God you loved and served watch over the dear ones left behind and guide their feet in the way that leads to Eternal life is the prayer of her sister,

SEVERE BRONCHIAL COUGH

Doctors Feared Lung Trouble,
Restored to Health by Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that lung troubles are inherited,
but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to them.

Mrs. Kate Heckman, Springfield, Ohio says: "A few years ago I was in a very bad run-down condition, and the physician told me I had consumption.
I tried another physician, and he told me I had ulcers on my right lung. I quit the physicians and started on 'Vinol.' Today I am perfectly healthy, and that is why I recommend 'Vinol.'"

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough, Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incipient pulmonary diseases.

"Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be refunded if it does not help you."

CUBIST EFFECT ON SPRING GOWNS

Various Shades of Red are Among the Seasons Favorite Colors

SAILOR HATS AND FLORAL HATS

New York, February 13.

We have been hearing of the Cubist and Futurist movement in art, but it is hardly realized by conservative people what a sway this movement is having upon architecture, furniture, and clothes. It is a passing whim or a permanent influence, according to the views you take of this new school of art.

Recently, a progressive store in New York City advertised an exhibition of six gowns made by the famous Poiret, to be shown on living models, whose hair in each case would match the gown she wore.

As a setting to these Poiret creations, a space was set apart and arranged as a salon, with Cubist furnishings. The rugs were woven in cubes of brilliant contrasting colors. The furniture was built upon the simplest, square lines, painted a foggy gray and ornamented with a small stiff floral design. The jardinières were square, and held plants carefully clipped in conventional squares and circles, reminding one of the trees in a child's Noah's ark.

© McCall
Dark Green Poplin-Serge Coat Bound With Black Silk Braid

The models, who strolled nonchalantly back and forth, or seated themselves comfortably for a moment's rest, were completely in one with their environment, as their gowns were in Cubist colors, and their combination of red, green, purple, and orange. The girl wearing an orange and blue Roman stripe waist and tunic had hair of orange. Another, wearing a costume where red and blue were the predominating colors, wore a wig of red.

A bright blue wig was worn with a changeable blue and green taffeta evening dress. A draped pauper widened either side of the skirt, and the simple waist, with body and sleeve in one, was trimmed with a wide bertha of silver lace. In front it was caught by a large rose of silver guaze.

It is obvious that the French adaptation of hair to gown is impractical, but the gowns fashioned to meet the approval of the fastidious, eyes of Poiret were full of charm and helpful suggestions.

A wonderful gown of purple, with sleeves and yoke of rosy red, had a skirt with rather a long gathered tunic, on either side of which fell a panel of red. With this was worn a purple coiffure, probably the least objectionable of the Parisienne's love for bizarre expressed vividly in this unnatural hair.

Anyone wishing one of these patterns can secure same at the firm at Candler & Maloney.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ills it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Owen Introduces Child Labor Bill in Senate—Leading Virginians Endorse it

Senator Owen of Oklahoma introduced on Saturday the same federal child labor bill which Mr. Palmer of Pennsylvania last month presented in the House. It applies to factories producing goods for inter-state commerce the 14-year age limit already in force more or less comprehensively in forty states. It regulates the employment of children under 16 by limiting their working hours to eight in one day, and by prohibiting entirely their employment at night in mills, factories or workshops and at any time in mines or quarries.

The Virginia State Child Labor Committee has unanimously endorsed the bill, and this action by citizens of the old stronghold of States' Rights is considered by Owen R. Lovejoy, general secretary of the National Child Labor Committee to be an indication of the increasing demand by consumers for goods that are free from the taunt of child labor. Mr. Lovejoy says further:

"The National Child Labor Committee is actively working for the passage of this Owen-Palmer bill. It is the first time a federal bill has been introduced which is comprehensive enough to be worth while and simple enough to be enforceable; and we are advised by able lawyers that the provisions of the bill are constitutional. It has been introduced by Democrats but we hope it will be supported, regardless of party lines, by all who believe that young children should be freed from the burden of wage-earning and that older children should be protected from overwork and the dangers of mining."

Tombstone as a Barometer.

Upton, near Peterborough, one of the smallest parishes in England, numbering only fourteen houses, possesses a mysterious tombstone of black marble, which emits a damp ooze in patches when it is about to rain. It is regarded in the village as an infallible barometer.
